New Grocery Store.
THE subscriber having commenced the Grocery business in the house of Mr. E. Lloyd, formerly occupied by Mr. Wm. Dunlap, on Cameron street, between Fairfax and Royal streets, has particularly selected for family use a general assortment of the best wines, liquors, cordials and groceries, which will be sold low for cash.

Twenty-four boxes Sicily lemons, in prime order, from New-York; and a fine assortment of handsome paper-hanging, recently imported from Marseilles, which will be sold very low by sets and by the yard. VINCENT MASOLETTI. August 18 1m 50 Dollars Reward.

ABSCONDED on Saturday morning, the 15th inst. negro George, or George Griffin, the property of Miss McCall, by trade a nailer, and understands some part of the blacksmith's business; he is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, stout made, very black complexion, large eyes and mouth, with thick lips. He is a very artful fellow and has been in the habit of obtruding himself as a free man, and will no doubt attempt to pass as such, and probably get work—has a down look when spoken to.—His clothes not recollected, having various suits.

A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county, 20 in the county of Washington or Fairfax, or the above reward if taken 50 miles from town, with all reasonable charges if brought home.

Masters of vessels are cautioned against harboring or carrying off said runaway, as they will be dealt with according to law. JAMES SANDERSON. August 17

Land for Sale.
THE subscriber offers for sale a tract of 80 acres of land, on the Colchester road, five miles from Alexandria, adjoining the lands of Haywood Foote and Dennis Johnston. The greater part of this tract is fine meadow land, abundantly supplied with water. Also one other tract of 261 acres, on the Ravensworth road, about 6 miles from Alexandria, and one mile from the first mentioned tract, adjoining land of Thos. Janney and Mr. McPherson—the greater part of this tract is in wood, the soil good and highly susceptible of improvement from the use of plaster. If these lands are not sold before the first of January next, they will then be for rent.

Exchange & Broker's Office, Georgetown, District of Columbia.

ROMULUS RIGGS. At his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and West, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the Western Country should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 19

Ten Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber about the 4th of August, Negro Woman LOUIZA, she is 25 years old, about 5 feet five inches high, and stout; has some of her front teeth out, and is apt to laugh when spoken to; she has a sister Marinda and a mother living in Georgetown, one above Semmes's tavern, and the other on Herriog Hill, where she has been harbored for two weeks, and left there to come home, but has not done so. I expect she can be found in Georgetown or Alexandria, where she has many acquaintances. I will give the above reward if brought home, or lodged in jail so that I get her again. ROBERT HARPER. Prince George's co. Maryland, September 8 dtt

ACADEMY.
THE Subscriber most respectfully informs the inhabitants of Alexandria, that he will open an English, Mercantile, and Mathematical Academy at Mr. Rudd's, Prince-street, a few doors west of the Farmers' Bank, where youth shall be instructed with care and expedition in the following sciences, in order to qualify them for the different departments in trade and business, viz: In the Mercantile, Naval, and Military line.—Reading; writing; arithmetic; English grammar; book-keeping; geometry; both plane and solid; mensuration of surfaces and solids; trigonometry, both plane and spherical; surveying; gauging; navigation; dialing; use of the globes, maps, and geography; algebra; conic-sections; mechanics; gunnery; fortification; fluxions; astronomy; &c. &c.

Applications to be made to Mr. Guy Atkinson, Mr. Wm. Dunlap, or at the academy, where the terms will be made known. The Academy will open on the 17th inst. JAS. CADEN. Prof. Math. & Nat. Philosophy. *Arithmetic in so compendious a manner, (by lecture) that one figure does the office of ten in the common way; and of course, in one tenth the time the student can acquire a regular knowledge of this excellent art. *Book-keeping (by single and double entry) in all its varieties, with general lectures on Domestic, Factorage, and Company Accounts; Accounts of Exchange; Negotiation of bills; covering of cargoes, &c. with calculations, shewing at one view the state of the trader, merchant, factor, and grocer's affairs. These being more closely connected with business than any of the above, occasioned the subscriber to point them out to the public. He also invites the learned to visit the academy at their convenience, and judge for themselves. On the first of October he will open an Evening School, for the accommodation of those whose employments prevent from attending during the day. J. C. September 12

Baltimore Hospital,
24th August, 1818. THE board of visitors have much pleasure in announcing to the public, that within the last eighteen months, a large and elegant addition has been made to this valuable institution, in the erection of the East wing of the building. This wing is 152 feet in length and 36 in width, with an extensive Southern projection at its extreme East end. It contains between 30 and 40 apartments, admirably calculated for the accommodation of every class of patients. Of this number are several large and airy wards, intended particularly for the reception of seamen, and well adapted to their various diseases. These different rooms and wards will be warmed by open fires, and by heated air thrown into them, from furnaces constructed on a safe and improved plan. Arrangements will also soon be made, for lighting the apartments in the entire building, with gas.

The unwearied exertions of Doctors Mackenzie and Smyth, the attending Physicians of the Hospital, in their attention to the cure of the sick, have given a character to this Institution, which is now inferior to none in the United States. In the short space of six years, a most noble establishment has been erected—a thing without parallel in this country. It is well known, that above half a century has been consumed, in bringing the Hospitals of New-York and Philadelphia to their present size, and it is admitted by many gentlemen, who have visited these Institutions, that the Hospital here, is by far the most extensive; the whole building being now 360 feet in length.

The daily increase of the sick in the Hospital, renders it absolutely necessary that the new wing should be furnished; and every exertion is now making, to have it completed, before the cold weather shall set in. The visitors at their late meeting, examined the Institution with much care—the apartments of the sick in the private infirmary—those in the lunatic asylum—and the wards of the sick and disabled seamen in the Marine Hospital—and they assert with confidence, that the sick and afflicted, of every description are well accommodated and carefully attended. They have seen at their different meetings, the private patient comfortable; the wretched marine humanely taken care of; and the sailor, disabled by age, wounds and sickness, well provided with suitable medical assistance, and with every other comfort which his condition may require. Indeed the agreeable situation in which this very useful class of men are placed, does much credit, as well to the Director of the Marine Hospital, as to the attending Physicians, to whose immediate care they are entrusted. Every praise too, which the visitors can bestow, is due to Mr. & Mrs. Gatchel, the Stewart and Matron of the Hospital, for the neat and clean manner in which the House is uniformly kept, and for their care and attention to the administration of the internal economy of the establishment.

Before they conclude this account of the Hospital, the visitors would invite the attention of their fellow citizens throughout the United States, to the Anatomical Cabinet of Wax Preparations, by Chippys, which certainly far surpasses any thing of the kind ever exhibited in this country; and will afford to those whose curiosity may lead them to see how "fearfully and wonderfully they are made," but more especially to the medical student, a fund of useful information.

The Hospital is under the care of the following medical gentlemen:

Doctors Colin Mackenzie & James Smyth Attending Physicians.
Dr. Horatio Gates Jernison, Attending Surg.
Doctors George Brown John Coulter John Campbell White Solomon Birkhead John Cromwell Peter Chataud Ashton Alexander John Owen William Donaldson Consulting Physicians.

By order of the Board of Visitors, JOHN HILLEN, Sec'y.

ABSCONDED from the subscriber's service, on Saturday night the 15th inst. Negro woman TREACE or TREACY—she is five feet two or three inches high, about 30 years of age, of a very dark complexion, and when particularly examined is very apt to confound herself—it is deemed unnecessary to mention her clothing, as she has all of them with her, and being extremely artful, she no doubt will change them and endeavor to pass for a free woman. She is well acquainted in Charles county, Prince George's, Alexandria and the City, as about 5 years ago she made her escape, and was 6 or 7 months about the Lower Ferry, leading to Alexandria, and from thence to Washington City, where she acquired an extensive acquaintance among the Negroes belonging to John Brent, esq.; and the greater part of said Negroes belong now to William and Robert Brent, esqrs. and Mr. Dudley Diggs. Negro Treace has a scar on the back part of her neck, occasioned by a scorpion put for the benefit of her eyes, which are very weak at this time. I will give 10 dollars if taken in the county and secured in jail, or if out of the county and secured as aforesaid, so that I get her again, 25 dollars, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home. All persons are forewarned harboring or employing said Negro at their peril, as the law will be rigorously put in force against any offender. THOMAS BURGESS. Charles co. French Creek Boarding School.
The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FARMER CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikesland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

MR. EDITOR,
I have seen in an old almanack the following sermon. Perhaps it may occupy a square or so in your paper, to the satisfaction of your customers.

A COUNTRYMAN.
TEXT.—Man is born unto trouble as the sparks fly upward. He giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

SERMON.
Man's ingress to the world is naked and bare; His progress through it is trouble and care; His egress from it, is no one knows where. But, by way of improvement, one truth is most clear—
We shall do well there, if we do well here; And I could say more, should I preach a whole year.

EPITAPH.
Nothing diffuse was ever yet acute,
The tree where leaves abound bears little fruit;
Still if Tom's speech lack arguments of strength, All that it wants in depth, he gives in length!

From the Evangelical Magazine.
THE KALEIDOSCOPE.
My young friend Eugenius, called in last evening to show me this famous new toy of Dr. Brewster's. 'And here,' said he, 'giving me something like a small spy glass, 'here is the Kaleidoscope.'

'The Kaleidoscope,' said I, 'and what is that?' It is all Greek to me.
'It is Greek indeed; but it means in English, an instrument to see beautiful things with.'

'What! does it show us angels or ladies?'

'Not exactly. But come, put your eye to the small end, and you will see what you shall see.'

'Sure enough, I looked in it; and there I saw a great variety of very pretty little patterns of flowers, or some such things, I hardly know what to call them, more curious than ever I saw before.'

'Well, well,' said I, 'it is certainly a fine toy; and it may be of some use too. But come, one good turn deserves an other. You have shown me your Kaleidoscope, and I will show you mine.'

'Your's? have you one indeed?'

'Indeed have I, and worth a thousand of this. It is in fact a true Kaleidoscope; and shows you beautiful things sure enough. Only look in it well, and you will see things more to be desired than gold, yea than such fine gold—You will see all heaven opened before you, bowers of bliss, fountains of youth, rivers of pleasure flowing through trees of life, saints and angels with roses of love on their cheeks, and amaranths of immortality on their brows—Above all, you will see the face of one who is the chief among ten thousand, and altogether lovely. In short, you will see an endless succession and variety of delights and wonders, eye hath not seen, neither hath it entered into the heart of man to conceive.'

'Well now, I see you are as fond of riddles as ever. But let me see this wonderful instrument at once.'

'Here it is at your service—the Christian Kaleidoscope—called in English, a POCKET BIBLE.' EUPHAINOR.

Inefficiency of Capital Punishment.
The enclosed narrative was transmitted by a resident at Clonmel, and may be perfectly relied on as authentic.

Some years since, three men of the name of McGrath, a father and his two sons, were executed at the village of Bausha, in the county of Tipperary, under the following extraordinary circumstances, for robberies committed in that neighborhood.—One of the sons was convicted at the Clonmel Assizes, and at his execution his father and brother attended, and received his corpse in their arms from the gallows!

Soon after, the second son was convicted for a fresh offence, and his execution was likewise attended by his father, who also received his body in like manner!

It might be reasonably supposed that two such awful examples would have made such an impression on the mind of the old man as should have induced him to avoid a similar fate; but, strange as it may appear, the effect was otherwise, as the deluded man was, within the next six months, convicted for a new crime, and executed on the spot where his two sons had so recently suffered!!!!

"Such is the inefficiency of capital punishment."

[London paper.]
The passions are like the elements, excellent servants, but dreadful masters; and whoever is under their dominion, will have little leisure to do any thing but obey their dictates.

Celibacy is either voluntary or constrained. In this country so few embrace a single life from choice, that, added to those who may yield to it from necessity, it can have no sensible effect upon our population:—we have, in fact, people enough for all the purposes of society; and notwithstanding the great consumption of human life by war, population is on the increase every where; so that voluntary celibacy cannot be considered a political offence. The injustice of this prejudice will appear in a stronger light when operating against involuntary celibacy, or that description of maids who would, if they could, approach the altar of Hymen, when it is considered that no criminality can reasonably be ascribed to what cannot be remedied or avoided. The usages of society, want of fortune, and other causes, consign females to involuntary celibacy.

Females cannot consistently woo; they must be wooed by our sex; and such are the restraints imposed on the fair sex, that were a female to make the first advance towards a matrimonial union, she would expose herself to censure and obloquy, and perhaps, render herself an object of disgust to the man whom her inclinations would select as a partner through life; but if there are men in whose breasts advances on the part of the female would create disgust, there are others whom such conduct would inspire with partiality towards her, believing it to be the result of a flattering preference: so diversely constituted is the human mind, it sometimes happens that a female in paying an exact respect to the laws imposed on such occasions, misses an opportunity of establishing herself for life, and thus becomes the martyr of propriety in becoming the victim of the prejudices entertained against female celibacy.

But let us turn our eye to the old bachelor, who may be considered the chief cause of the celibacy of females.

However exceptionable in principle, or tainted in conduct, by fashionable view, the old bachelor meets with indulgence, and his company is sought after. He makes one of the company at the card table; he fills a chair at the dinner and supper table; he gives lessons to young misses emancipated from the boarding school, in the science of flirtation and small talk; he attends matrons to the play-house, church, and places of public resort: now I would ask any dispassionate person which of the two descriptions of persons is the more respectable, the antiquated virgin of irreproachable conduct, who makes herself as useful as her situation will allow in domestic life; or the hoary bachelor, who, being unwilling to wed, because he cannot find a female possessed of equal fortune, connexion and qualification, to what he thinks himself entitled to, to marry him, abandons himself to a promiscuous intercourse with the prodigal part of the other sex, or roams about, corrupting innocence, or seducing the unsuspecting from the paths of virtue, until at length he attaches himself to some unfortunate impure, whom he makes the partner of his illicit pleasures during the unexpired remnant of a vicious life, and who may perhaps bring him a spurious offspring to record his wickedness? The answer to this question is obvious.

Z.

From the Norfolk Beacon, Sept. 17.

We learn from captain Turner, of the sloop Packet, from Matthews county, that being at captain King's mill, in that county, on Tuesday last, he met with 16 men, 15 of whom were Spaniards, and the other apparently an East Indian, the only one of the company who spoke English, and he but imperfectly. This man requested captain T. in behalf of himself and his associates, to bring them to this port, which he declined, from their being entirely unknown to him. The account which this man, who acted as interpreter, gave of himself and his companions, was: that being on board a Spanish schooner from Havana, bound to the coast of Africa for slaves, they were taken about eight or ten days ago, in the Gulf, by a Patriot privateer, and were afterwards put on board an American ship, bound to Baltimore—the name of which, or the captain's, they did not know. He further stated, that the captain of the privateer gave each of them, at the time of his putting them on board the ship, twenty-five dollars, which was taken from them by the captain. The ship anchored in Mobjack Bay on Sunday evening last, and they were put on board a pilot-boat, which brought them into East River, and set them ashore, without money or provisions. They stated that they were very roughly used on board the ship, and ordered into the pilot-boat which brought them off, with menacing language.

Captain Turner saw the ship in Mobjack Bay on Tuesday evening, when two pilots were going to her; he learnt also from a man who had been on board the pilot-boat from which the Spaniards were landed, that he had conversed with one of the crew of the pilot-boat, who gave as the reason of their being put on shore, previous to their arrival at Baltimore, that the ship was to remain three or four days in the Bay.—Captain Turner brought a letter from one of the Spaniards, (said to have been the mate of the Spanish vessel,) to the Spanish consul at this place, who, we learn, has given captain Turner instructions to return to Matthews and bring the men to Norfolk.

The Spanish captain, an elderly man, was detained on board the privateer, to be carried to Margarita with the prize schooner.

From the same, September 18.

We gave in yesterday's Beacon a statement of sixteen Spanish sailors being put ashore in Matthews County, on Sunday last, in a very destitute situation, by an American ship bound to Baltimore, at anchor in Mobjack Bay, which had received them from a Patriot privateer, by which they had been taken.

Captain Ham, of the Revenue Cutter, who was despatched by the Collector on Wednesday, to ascertain the character of the ship, returned last evening, and from him we received the following information just as our paper was going to press:

The ship is the Good Return, of Freetown, William C. Sands, master, and as her clearance, (dated 8th August) specifies, is from Baltimore, bound to the West Indies, having on board no other cargo than some barrels of herrings.—She sailed from Baltimore August 9th, put to sea, and returned into Cape Henry on the 18th, anchoring in Severn River at 6 P. M. of that day.

On the 25th August she again put to sea—on the 30th came to anchor off Beaufort, N. C. September 2d, discharged her pilot—Sept. 4, at 5 P. M. was boarded by a Patriot brig of war, which put on board her 16 Spanish prisoners, with provisions and water to bring them in. At 11 P. M. the ship's company being in a state of mutiny, Captain Sands determined to put back.—Sept. 7, spoke schr Hebe, with orders for the ship to return into the Chesapeake.—14th, at 4 P. M. took a pilot, and at midnight anchored off New-Point-Comfort.—On 15th, 5 men deserted. Captain S. says it is his intention, if he cannot procure men to proceed on his voyage, to return to Baltimore or some other port.

The above particulars were obtained from Captain Sands and from the ship's Log Book.—We could not learn the name of the privateer or her commander. The Spaniards have not yet reached this place.

FROM NEW-ORLEANS.

We are indebted to the polite attention of our correspondents in New-Orleans for papers of that city, to the 15th ult. and the following interesting communication of the 16th, (forwarded by the William & Joseph) for which we tender them our warmest thanks.

Extract of a letter to the Editors of the Herald, dated

"New-Orleans, Aug. 16.

"This particular season of the year is the recess of business here; consequently little or nothing doing. Our produce has mostly arrived from the interior, and has been exported. We may, with some accuracy, compute the value of our exports for the year ending the first of October next, at 20 millions of dollars.

"The growing crop of sugar, is not very promising and likely to be less productive than last year, owing to the dryness of the spring season, by which the young canes were much retarded. That of cotton is highly flattering in every section of the state which has been freed from; and should it escape the disaster of the rot, will be an unprecedented crop.

"Notwithstanding we have an immensity of shipping in port, and consequently a great number of seamen, amongst whom the diseases of the climate first begin to discover themselves, we are happy to say that all classes of citizens and strangers are healthy; and have every reason to hope that the city will escape the recurrence of that awful visitation, which it experienced the last summer."

FROM CALCUTTA.

By the ship Courier, Capt. Stanly, arrived here yesterday in 115 days from Calcutta, Mr. Toplis has received papers of the place to the 17th May inclusive.

The town of Mundlah was taken by the British forces by storm on the 26th April. About 500 of its defenders were killed.—The British account states that "Plunder continued to pour into Col. Adams' camp, and thousands were dying of wounds in the jungles." Ununt Sing, one of the most obnoxious chiefs to the British, was killed, and two others who were taken prisoners were sentenced to be hanged. It is said that previous to the surrender of the town and fort, they had ordered several of their women to be massacred. The army was to march without loss of time to Chowrapur, which it was thought would speedily surrender. The Peishwa had fled to the westward.

Calcutta, May 17.

Accounts from Mirzapore state, that the price of cotton is falling there, with every appearance of continuing to decline. The same has been latterly the case in Calcutta, and we are pleased to observe that such is the case, from the expectation that the prices may be rendered favorable to the profitable shipment of that article to China, so as to give employment to many of the vessels now laid up, and heaping severe losses on their owners.

MR. WIRT.

Mr. Coale, of Baltimore, has published a pamphlet report of the trials of the Mail Robbers, Hare, Alexander and Hare, in May last. Mr. Wirt spoke twice on the trials in chief; the first time on the case of Joseph Thompson Hare; and next on that of John Alexander. His speeches were not given in full—but, even in these brief sketches, we meet with some passages which interest us. They breathe the same ease, simplicity, and beauty of expression, which we were wont to admire in his more finished exhibitions. The book is not in every hand—and the following extracts may therefore serve to amuse many of our readers:—

CASE OF J. T. HARE.

"Mr. Wirt admitted that he had mistaken the gentleman. The popular indignation, however, of which the gentleman complained so vehemently, was certainly very natural, and he would add, very honorable. It was the indignation of a virtuous people against a most flagitious and daring offence. He hoped never to see the day, when the recital of such a crime would be heard with composure by the American people. It would be a mournful proof that our moral sensibility was gone. At the same time, he should regret, extremely, that the indignation of the jury against the offence, should mingle itself with their examination of the evidence against the person here accused; for it did not by any means follow, that because the offence was enormous, the prisoner at the bar was the person guilty of it. He was to be tried by the judgment, not by the passions of the jury; he was to be tried by the evidence, and not by their feelings, either of indignation or of mercy; for mercy was not as the gentleman had alleged, the prerogative of the jury; mercy towards criminals was the prerogative of the President of the U. S.; to him under our constitution, and to him alone, belongs the power of reprieve and pardon. The jury had sworn to try the cause according to the evidence; to whatever conclusion, therefore, the evidence conducted them, that conclusion was to be their verdict: they had no alternative—they could make no compromise with their consciences; they had only to discharge, with inflexible firmness, that duty which the laws of their country confided to them, and when the question of mercy came before the President, there could be no doubt, that he would discharge his with equal fidelity. When that question shall come before him, if ever it shall come, he will remember that mercy, however amiable in itself, degenerates into weakness, and even into guilt, where it is improperly directed. He will remember, that there is a mercy due to society, as well as to individuals; that the proper object of mercy is either suffering virtue, or penitent guilt: penitent guilt, which presents a well-founded hope of reformation; he will remember that a penitential life is not always a place of repentance; that there have been persons who have been once, twice, thrice and four times sentenced to that species of confinement, to whom it has proved no school of reform; who have applied the hours of their solitude to no other purpose than to sharpen their wits in plotting new schemes of rapine, and who have come forth into society, only the more hardened in guilt, and the better prepared to carry on their depredations on a broader, bolder and more daring scale. There are such men—we do not say that the prisoner is one, but there are men, we all know, so perfectly dead to every touch of virtuous feeling, so obdurate and stubborn in guilt, and so perversely proud of the success of their crimes, as to set at naught, all obligations, human and divine, and to laugh not only at the whip of the law, but even at the thunder of Heaven. What mercy would there be to the virtuous part of society, in letting loose upon them, men (if men) of such description? These remarks, he said, were drawn from him against his purpose, by the unexpected course pursued by the gentleman to whom he was replying."

Alex's Common Council.
SEPTEMBER 14, 1818.
Ordered, That the superintendent of police do cause a lamp to be erected on one of the posts in the portico over the new market-house, near and convenient to the room lately rented to the levy court for the use of the clerk of the circuit court of the district of Columbia for the county of Alexandria.

Ordered unanimously, That the street-commissioner do cause Pitt-street, from Cameron to Queen-street, to be paved according to law.

Ordered, That the street-commissioner do reset the curb stones on the south side of Cameron-street, from Washington to St. Asaph-street, and also reset the curb stones on the east side of Washington-street, from Cameron to King-street, and pave the gutters concave—the expense to be charged to the third ward.

Passed in council the 14th day of September, 1818.
J. H. HOOLE,
President of the Common Council.

Orne, on a cruise, who treated us in a very handsome manner, and supplied us with water, which we stood much in need of. The Hornet had been chased for upwards of 3 days by a Spanish brig of 20 guns, and had a very narrow escape, she having sprung both her masts during the chase. The Favorite was bound to Wilmington, N C but being short of wood and water, and having a few days ago in the gulf stream carried away the mast of her main rigging, put in to this port to refit and procure a supply.

20 Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, living at Selden's farm, near Alexandria, on the 20th inst. a Negro Boy, named L. E. LAND, belonging to Dr. Selden, about 18 or 19 years of age, dark complexion, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, well made, and is apt to laugh when spoken to. He had on an orange shirt and trousers, half worn, a country cloth round about, very much worn, and wool hat. It is probable he has gone towards Baltimore. I will give ten dollars if taken in the District, or the above reward if out of the same, and reasonable charges if brought home.

Valuable Estate for Sale.
UNDER the authority of a decree from the Equity Court of Prince George's county, the subscriber will on Wednesday the 23d day of September next, offer at public sale, at the house of Isidore Hardy, in Piscataway, a most valuable property, the Estate of George R. Leiper, Esq. deceased, as well known by the name of MONTPELIER—about 2 miles from Piscataway, 9 miles from Alexandria, and 16 from Washington city.
This farm, which contains rather more than 800 acres, is truly valuable. The soil is fertile and highly susceptible of improvement by the use of clover and plaster. The buildings are good and commodious, and the site of the Mansion, in beauty of perspective and salubrity of air, is excelled by few on Potomac river. To be enabled to appreciate fully the elegance of the situation and all the advantages which result to the possessor of this valuable estate, it is only necessary that it should be viewed, which may be done, and every necessary information obtained, by application to the subscriber, or Mr. Aquila Baden, the present manager of the farm.
The terms of sale are that the purchaser shall pay one-third in ready money, and the residue in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with approved security, and on the ratification of the sale by the court, and the payment of the whole purchase money with the interest thereon due, and not before, the trustee will execute to the purchaser a deed in the terms of the decree. The purchaser on complying with the terms of sale, will have the liberty of seeding a crop of winter grain.
THOMAS MUNDELL, Trustee.

Public Sale.
The subscriber will offer at public sale, on the same day and place above mentioned, 125 acres of land (lying nearly square) adjoining the above farm. It has been enclosed five years, without being cultivated; has 8 or 10 acres well set in timothy, and upwards of 30 in good timber and wood of different kinds. The improvements are a logged quarter and good barn. A part of the land has been well cow-penned for the five years. Terms will be made known on the day of sale.

Notice.
PURSUANT to a decree of the Honorable Court of Charles County as a Court of Equity, I shall expose to public sale at Port-Tobacco, Charles county, Maryland, on Wednesday the 7th day of October next, all the real estate of which General John Mitchell died seized, lying in Durham parish in said county, consisting of two tracts of land adjoining each other, called Holly-spring Resurveyed and Meek's Park, containing about 750 acres. This estate is situated contiguous to that of Colonel John Tayloe's, near Maryland Point, and within two miles of the river Potomac, is considered one of the most healthy in that neighborhood, lies level, and the soil (a part of which is already strong), is thought to be susceptible of speedy improvement by the use of clover and plaster of paris. On this estate is a very considerable body of wood and timber, which if converted into money would probably pay the purchase money. The improvements are a two story dwelling with two rooms and a cellar under the whole, kitchen, Negro quarters, barn, and corn house, and an orchard of some of the choicest fruits.—A more particular description of it is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed that those inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the day of sale. It will be sold either entire or in parcels for the accommodation of purchasers.—The purchaser or purchasers will be required to enter into bond, with approved security for the payment of the purchase money in one, two and three years, with interest, payable annually from the day of sale; and on the ratification of the sale by the Court, and the payment of the purchase money, and not before, a deed or deeds in due form will be made, conveying all the estate, right, title, interest and claim, to the purchaser, that the said John Mitchell, deceased, held in the same, which title is indisputable.

Public Sale.
UNDER the authority of a deed of trust from James D. Patterson to me, I shall at 11 o'clock, on Saturday, the 5th day of September next, upon the premises, proceed to sell at public auction for cash, or upon such credit as may then be agreed on, a lot of ground, with the buildings thereon erected, situate on the west side of West-street, and north side of King-st. in the town of Alexandria, and described in the said deed as follows: beginning at a point where the north line of King-street intersects the west line of West-street, and extending westwardly with the line of King-street 19 feet; thence north and parallel with King-street 100 feet to a 10 feet alley; thence east and parallel to King-street 19 feet, to West-street; thence south with West-street 100 feet to the beginning—subject to a ground rent of 67 dollars, payable on the 15th day of October, in each and every year forever.
J. D. PATTERSON, Trustee.
The sale of the above property is postponed till Thursday the 24th inst. September 5

Land for Sale.
I WILL sell from 150 to 300 acres of land, a part of the farm on which I live.—On said land there is a log house, with two rooms on a floor, a meat house, with several other small buildings, an excellent apple orchard, peaches, pears, quinces, damsons, &c.
DANIEL DULANY.
August 24

Lexington for Sale.
THIS estate, containing two thousand three hundred and fifty acres, more or less, being one half of the well known tract of land commonly called "Mason's Neck," situated on the Potomac, in the county of Fairfax, Virginia, is now offered for sale.
About two-thirds of it is covered with an uncommon heavy growth of white and black oak, hickory, pine, poplar, &c. near the water's edge; whence it may be transported to the markets of the district of Columbia, (a distance of 20 miles only) where timber and fuel are always in demand, and without the expense and risk encountered in conveying those articles from situations further down the river: the remainder is in cultivation, and furnished with every necessary building for that purpose, together with orchards and a blacksmith's shop. The other improvements are a spacious and elegant dwelling-house, kitchen, en, dairy, smoke-house, office, icehouse, a well of excellent water, and a falling garden, of the most tasteful and costly design, filled with the rarest and most beautiful shrubberies and flowers; exotic and indigenous, all situated on an eminence, commanding a view of the rest of the tract, which extends in an unintercepted plain from the foot of the eminence to the Potomac and Occoquan, by which it is so far bounded as to render the expense of enclosing it comparatively nothing. The prospect, moreover, of the surrounding country, diversified in every direction by sheets of water, is really beautiful beyond description. There are likewise attached to this estate four valuable

Shad & Herring Fisheries.
however, the subscriber intends to reserve one of them and a few acres of land. The woods abound with deer in such numbers, that with a little care a gentleman might command a constant supply of venison for his table; and besides the large streams abovementioned, the various creeks and inlets that every where intersect the land are covered in the proper season with wild fowl of every description known in our waters.
When to all these advantages is added the great natural fertility of the land, which is not exceeded perhaps in the western country, its adaptation to improvement by the use of plaster, which has been proved by experiment, its vicinity to society, to market, to a manufacturing grist-mills, to which the distance of conveyance by land and water is not more than 5 or 6 miles, it may with truth be pronounced the most valuable estate, of the same extent, in the whole range of country watered by the Potomac.
It will be sold entire or divided to suit purchasers.
The terms of sale will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, the remaining 2-3ds in two equal annual payments, with interest from the day of sale, secured by a deed of trust on the land—which will be shown in my absence to any person disposed to purchase, by Mr. William Allison or Mr. Weston, residing on the premises.

Gunston for Sale.
THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 18 miles below Alexandria —it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potomac creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster is sold with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity.
A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both well selected apples and peach orchards of well selected apple and peach trees, an abundance of other choice fruit.
More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had.
The terms of sale will be accommodating.
Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Potomac Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.
I WILL give the above reward for apprehending and lodging in any jail in the District of Columbia, a person by the name of JOHN POST, a Bricklayer and Stonemason, who has been at work for about two months past at Fort Washington, and was discharged on the 7th of September inst.— He says he was born in the state of New-York, is about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, and has sandy hair: he had with him an apprentice boy, nearly grown. A few days previous to his leaving Fort Washington he took the liberty of borrowing, in the name of Mr. John Cohagen, from a lady at that place 15 dollars, which was not known till after he left it; and immediately after he was discharged and paid off, he forged two checks in the name of the Subscriber, on the Farmers' Bank of Alexandria, one of which he procured the money for at the Bank, and the other he passed to a person in Alexandria, which was detected and refused.—Previous to his coming to Fort Washington, he worked in the City of Washington, where he said he intended to work again; but it is probable he has not stopped so near the theatre of his villainy.
Persons are cautioned against being imposed on by him. BOLIHA LAWS.

Alexandria, August 4.
WAS committed to the jail of this Co. as a runaway, a negro man, who calls himself JOHN WEAKS, and says that he was born free in Prince George Co.
Maryland, that his mother's name is Sally Green, who lives near the road leading from the Alexandria Ferry to the Eastern Branch bridge, adjoining one Hen. Thompson. He was committed to this jail on the 7th May last, and then called himself William Washington, but made his escape the 16th. He is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, stout made. Says he is known to Mr. Daniel Mosley, and Henry Thompson, of Maryland. The owner is requested to come and prove his property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

BILL IN CHANCERY.
Robert Perry
versus James B. Dunnington, Robert Dunning-ton, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Bloxham and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington.
THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate.
Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non-residents.—It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed. Tests.

Charles County Court,
March Term, 1818.
ON application to Charles county court by petition in writing of John Smith, of Charles county, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said Jno. Smith resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said John Smith is in actual confinement for debt, and the said John Smith having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles county court, to answer such allegations, as his creditors may make against him.—It is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said John Smith be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively, before the third Monday of August next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in said county, on the said third Monday of August next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause why the said John Smith should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 20th day of June 1818.

TO PUBLISH
A Splendid Edition of Washington's Farewell Address, To the People of the United States.
THE world has seen enough of warriors and of Heroes—enough of Statesmen—of men who have guided Armies in the field, or dictated as Sages in the Cabinet, for the exclusive purpose of Ambition. History from its earliest page to the present day, has offered to our contemplation, only ONE WASHINGTON, but ONE MAN, whose dangers in war, and labors in peace, were undertaken and supported with a single eye, to the benefit of his country; whose wonderful and honorable success, was the plain result of wisdom in design, and valour in execution; whom danger never appalled, nor defeat depressed; who, persevering in the justice of his cause, coveted no reward but the well earned approbation of those whose interest he lived to promote: who renounced all public honors, when they ceased to be the necessary instruments of good to the people, whose gratitude confirmed them: who superior to all Mon-

50 Dollars Reward.
ABSCONDED on Saturday morning, the 15th inst. negro George, or George Griffin, the property of Miss M'Call, by trade a nailer, and understands some part of the blacksmith's business; he is about 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, stout made, very black complexion, large eyes and mouth, with thick lips. He is a very artful fellow and has been in the habit of obtruding himself as a free man, and will no doubt attempt to pass as such, and probably get work—has a down look when spoken to.—His clothes not recollected, having various suits.
A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or country, 20 in the county of Washington or Fairfax, or the above reward if taken 50 miles from town, with all reasonable charges if brought home.
Masters of vessels are cautioned against harboring or carrying off said runaway, as they will be dealt with according to law.

Land for Sale.
THE subscriber offers for sale a tract of 80 acres of land, on the Colchester road, five miles from Alexandria, adjoining the lands of Haywood Foot and Deenie Johnston. The greater part of this tract is fine meadow land, abundantly supplied with water. Also one other tract of 26 1/2 ac., on the Ravensworth road, about 6 miles from Alexandria, and one mile from the first mentioned tract adjoining land of Thos. Janney and Mr.
M'Piereson: the greater part of this tract is in wood, the soil good and highly susceptible of improvement from the use of plaster. If these lands are not sold before the first of January next, they will then be for rent.
